

REQUEST FOR ARTICLES FOR THE POLITICAL THEORY JOURNAL FORO INTERNO

The Journal Foro Interno. Anuario de Teoría Política is currently requesting articles to be considered for publication in the upcoming issues (vol. 18, December 2018; vol. 19, December 2019).

Authors interested in submitting an article may contact us at: forointerno@cps.ucm.es

Foro Interno is open to receiving articles throughout the entire year. We seek top quality scientific articles in the field of political theory. We also accept manuscripts that refer to other areas of knowledge but that offer content relevant to political theory, such as the history of thought, political psychology, political philosophy, cultural studies and literary criticism.

Articles are welcome in Spanish, French or English. If the article is accepted, it will need to be translated into Spanish prior to publication. The author shall cover this expense, and Foro Interno reserves the right to make suggestions regarding the translation.

Articles should be sent in Microsoft Word format. The maximum length allowed is 35 pages in Times New Roman 12 font, with double spacing, and should include an abstract and a list of keywords describing the content. Manuscripts will be reviewed anonymously, using the double blind system, by at least two external evaluators. For more details on the publication rules, please go to <http://revistas.ucm.es/index.php/FOIN/about/submissions>

Foro Interno is listed in several prestigious national and international indices that are computable for the ANECA point system. It is published annually in December, in both print and electronic format. All content published to date is available in full text format and free of charge on the Portal of the Complutense University Scientific Journals. This Journal may be accessed at: <http://revistas.ucm.es/index.php/FOIN>
